BEHAVIORAL HEALTH ASSESSMENT

NORTH DAKOTA Behavioral Health Assessment Gaps and Recommendations

The purpose of the North Dakota Behavioral Health Assessment is to identify priority recommendations to enhance the foundation of the state's behavioral health system, with the goal of supporting North Dakota's children, adults, families and communities in health and wellness, to reach their full potential.

The North Dakota Department of Human Services, Behavioral Health Division was tasked with reporting the outcome of this assessment by the 64th Legislative Interim Human Services Committee during the August 2015 committee meeting.

NORTH DAKOTA BEHAVIORAL HEALTH SYSTEMS ANALYSIS WORK PLAN

Human Services Research Institute (2017)

- Project Goal: Support the State in ensuring a 21st century behavioral health system driven by quality and scientific merit, efficient in coordinating service provisions across agencies, and focused on outcomes leading to recovery with minimal barriers to access.
- Project Scope: In this work plan, “behavioral health needs” refer to challenges related to mental health and/or substance use. “Behavioral health services” are those that a) promote social and emotional wellness, b) prevent or reduce the severity or incidence of mental health or substance use problems, and/or c) address existing mental health or substance use-related needs through treatment and support. The populations of focus include individuals of all ages who receive behavioral health services through the publicly funded behavioral health system.

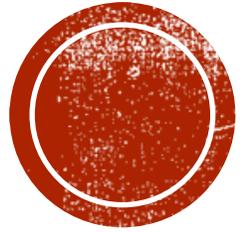

Aim 1: Conduct an in-depth review of North Dakota's behavioral health system

Aim 2: Analyze current utilization and expenditure patterns by payer source

Aim 3: Provide actionable recommendations for enhancing the comprehensiveness, integration, cost-effectiveness and recovery orientation of the behavioral health system to effectively meet the needs of the community

Aim 4: Establish strategies for implementing the recommendations produced in Aim 3.
